Going WILD over Nature
Educator Workshop with Project WILD

This workshop is for formal and nonformal educators who work with youth in K-12 grades and are interested in being trained in a nationally recognized environmental education program called Project WILD.

9 AM to 4 PM July 13, 2023
@Alabama Wildlife Federation NaturePlex

Key Features of revised Project WILD Program:

- Project WILD & Aquatic WILD were revised and updated in 2018 with several new activities added.
- Numerous activities have been revised to provide “field investigations” through which students explore their local outdoor environments.
- Every activity has STEM and career/occupation extensions.
- Background information and resources have been updated, covering a large range of topics.
- Activities support the State of Alabama Standards for K-12 and AMSTI
- Six hours of professional development credit is available.

The Going WILD over Nature workshop will be a hands-on, minds-on interdisciplinary training using activities from Project WILD and Aquatic WILD. Participants will receive the updated Project WILD and Aquatic WILD guidebooks.

Cost: $60 for non-ACES employees and $35 for ACES employees (Fee provides participants with both the Project WILD and Aquatic WILD guidebooks)
